

International Thematic Workshop

Migration studies and inclusive policies from social, developmental and educational perspective Rome (Italy), 21st – 23rd September 2020

Date	Hour	Focus on REFUGEES	Invited speakers
Monday 21st September	8:30–8:45	Welcome Address	Fabio Lucidi Dean of Faculty of Medicine and Psychology Luigi Leone Head of the Department of Social and Developmental Psychology Fiorenzo Laghi Director of the Board of the Dept. of Excellence for the project on “Migratory Flows and Inclusive Practices” Sapienza University of Rome Italy
	8:45-9:45	When We Help Outsiders: A Bigger Picture, and Some Subtle Mechanisms	Paul A.M. Van Lange VU Amsterdam The Netherlands
	9:45-10:45	Views of Forced Migration: Key Issues and Debates from an inter-disciplinary perspective	Giorgia Donà University of East London U.K.
	10:45-11:00	Coffee break
	11:00-12:00	Towards a Psychology of Refugee Integration	Gerald Echterhoff University of Muenster Germany
	12:00-13:00	A review of Asylum Seekers and Refugees in Italy: Where is the psychological research going	Giorgia Margherita University of Naples Italy
	13:00-14:30	Lunch
	14:30-16:30	Presentation by the Early Stage Researchers Trainees of different projects on “Migration”	Working group with participants

International Thematic Workshop

Migration studies and inclusive policies
from social, developmental and educational perspective
Rome (Italy), 21st – 23rd September 2020

Tuesday 22nd September	Focus on SOCIAL REPRESENTATIONS OF MIGRANTS and INSTITUTIONAL POLICIES from the two sides of Atlantic: Europe, Brazil and Canada
	9:00-10:00	We are in the same boat! Immigration Within and Towards Europe: a long-standing variable phenomenon between factual elements, social representations and media discourse	Alessia Rochira University of Salento Italy
	10:00-11:00	Media and involuntary immigrants: a study of social representations in Brazil two years before and after the 2017 new Migration Law	Andréia Isabel Giacomozzi Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina - UFSC Brazil
	11:00-11:30	Coffee break
	11:30-12:30	Newcomers' integration in Canada in the light of their life world: How are social representations and social experiences involved in the immigration process?	Lilian Negura University of Ottawa Canada
	12:30-13:30	Crossing the Atlantic to reach the promised land Canada: the 'Mirror Effect' and the Social Representation of a Refugee in Canadian Caseworkers	Corinne Buhay Simeoni University of Ottawa Canada
	13:30-14:30	Lunch
	14:30-16:30	Presentation by the Early Stage Researchers Trainees of different projects on "Migration"	Working group with participants

DIPARTIMENTO DI PSICOLOGIA
DEI PROCESSI DI SVILUPPO
E SOCIALIZZAZIONE

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA

MIGRATION DIVERSITY AND INCLUSIVE STRATEGIES

International Thematic Workshop

Migration studies and inclusive policies
from social, developmental and educational perspective
Rome (Italy), 21st – 23rd September 2020

Wednesday 23rd September	Focus on ACCULTURATION THEORIES, 2ND GENERATION OF IMMIGRANTS and on INSTITUTIONAL POLICIES THROUGH INTERSECTIONAL LENSES
	9:30-10:30	Fifty Years of Psychological Acculturation Research and Theory: Theoretical Advancements and Methodological challenges	David Lackland Sam University of Bergen Norway
	10:30-11:30	How all students can belong and achieve – approaches to cultural diversity in schools	Maja Schachner University of Potsdam Germany
	11:30-12:00	Coffee break
	12:00-13:00	The ideal immigrant is a married man. Analyzing Canadian (and Quebecois) immigration policies through intersectional lenses	Sonia Ben Soltane University of Ottawa Canada
	13:00-14:30	Lunch
	14:30-16:30	Presentation by the Early Stage Researchers Trainees of different projects on “Migration”	Working group with participants